Christmas and New Year Cruises 2024/2025.

Where Every Day Starts with Joyful Anticipation.

Christmas is a time to reflect on the events of the year gone by. Also a moment when we can allow ourselves to look ahead in anticipation at all of the plans we've already made for the year that is to come. It's the season of tranquility and contemplation but also a time for looking ahead with excitement. Is there any place more evocative than a ship for you to enjoy the experience? Is there anywhere else where you can be left to your thoughts while also observing the wonders of the river and the peacefully slumbering nature surrounding it? A place that sparks your sense of anticipation by taking you to bustling and brilliantly illuminated villages and cities where the holiday spirit is palpable?

Join us aboard one of the new VIVA Christmas or New Year cruises and allow us to show you the answer. Say goodbye to the old and ring in the new all while being festively pampered. Whether you're

When Silence is the Most Powerful Sound.

If you've never cruised down a river as it gently winds through the winter wonderland or been enchanted by the sights, then you don't know what you're missing: ice-covered rock formations sparkling in the winter sun to one side, picturesque villages filled with people preparing for the holidays, and a hush falling over the entire landscape with only the occasional sound of nature or bell tolling to break the silence. There is a reason why our Christmas cruises are among our most popular ones. Here you can just lay back, let go, close out the year in style, and look ahead with anticipation all while letting yourself be pampered.

Rhine, Main, and Moselle: Enchanting Christmas on Three Rivers

Whether you're on the Rhine, the Main, or the Moselle, a river cruise during advent season is a true feast for the senses. On the itinerary are picturesque vineyards whose wintry hillsides covered in bare vines exude a charm that's absolutely unique as well as towns renown for holding their dazzlingly illuminated Christmas markets in the most historically significant settings. The Christmas market on Cologne's Cathedral Square, lovingly referred to by locals as "Domplatte", is a prime example. Würzburg, home to one of the most impressive Christmas markets in Germany, featuring nearly 100 booths, is another. Next stop, Strasbourg. The city isn't just the official seat of the European Parliament, it also boasts the continent's oldest Christmas market. Characterized by its richly decorated streets and buildings, it's no wonder Strasbourg is referred to as the "Capitale de Noël", the Capital of Christmas.

Highlights

- Christmas market on the Domplatte, Cologne's Cathedral Square
- Amsterdam's festively lit canals
- Strasbourg, the Capital of Christmas
- Speyer, the cathedral city

Christmas Magic on the Elbe and Vltava

Majestic and unifying—these words describe the Elbe and the Vltava in equal measure. Flowing enormous distances and through magnificent landscapes, these two rivers connect the people, historical sites, and countries of Central Europe. During the Christmas season they are especially magical. Downstream, you'll not only come across the historic and festively lit cities of Wittenberg and Meissen, but the baroque splendor of Dresden as well. Dresden is the Florence of the Elbe and home to one of the oldest Christmas markets in Germany. As you traverse the Elbe via Litoměřice and Hořín, you'll experience enchanting landscapes around every river bend. From here, the magical journey continues down the Vltava River all the way to Prague. A walk down Prague's adorned alleyways, across the world-famous Charles Bridge, and through the historic Old Town with its illuminated churches and markets is pure magic, like a journey back in time. Magical Christmas memories are guaranteed!

Highlights

- The Luther house in Wittenberg
- Porcelain manufactory in Meissen
- World-famous Christmas cake "Dresdner Christstollen"
- St. Stephen's Cathedral of Litoměřice
- Trdelník, the pastry of Prague

Rhône during Christmas: A Feast of Cultural and Culinary Delights.

Four million visitors can't be wrong. That's how many people make the pilgrimage to the famous Fête des Lumières Festival in Lyon every December. Historical monuments and bridges across the city turn into a spectacle of lights with dancing, concerts, and countless other events filling Lyon's streets. There is no better place than here to start your winter journey. Along the Rhône, you are going to pass one charming town and village after the other, including Arles, Avignon, and Viviers—each of which is a treasure trove of culture and cuisine. Whether the you're visiting the Palace of The Pope in Avignon or the Roman amphitheatre in Arles, there are wonderfully-illuminated Christmas markets to explore at every stop. Not to mention the endless opportunities to send your taste buds on a Christmas vacation "à la française" of their own with culinary delights ranging from foie gras to mulled vin chaud hidden around every corner.

Highlights

- Lyon's Fête des Lumières Festival
- Festive cuisine "à la française"
- Mesmerizing riverscapes along the Rhône

Travel into the New Year.

New Year's Eve river cruises do more than just celebrate the incredible hibernal riverscape. Our exclusive pampering program is designed to let you ring in the new year in a delightful and relaxed atmosphere. Soak in the festive ambience as you treat yourself to an exquisite New Year's Eve gala dinner. Then, as fireworks begin to light up the night sky, it's time to head on deck for the indispensable midnight toast. Join us for a unique experience you're certain to savor for many years to come.

A night scene of a river with a bridge and fireworks in the sky. The fireworks are in shades of pink, purple, and white, exploding against a dark blue sky. The bridge has several arches and is lit up with warm lights. The water reflects the lights from the bridge and the fireworks. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.

Set Sail for the New Year: Our New Year's Eve cruises.

If you've ever admired the dazzling spectacle of fireworks reflected on water in the dark, then we are sure you'll agree: experiencing the turn of the year aboard a ship is truly something special. It's no surprise that so many of our New Year's Eve travelers are repeaters. For many, it's the second or third time celebrating New Year's Eve on one of our VIVA ships. Whether you're in Amsterdam, taking a New Year's stroll along scenic canals in the famous Jordaan district; in Bratislava, where you can watch the firework display over the Danube from the deck of our ship; or on the Rhine, where VIVA TIARA will take you through Strasbourg, Speyer, and Eltville. We provide a stirring atmosphere for you to experience one calendar year flowing into the next.

Highlights

- Electrical firework in Amsterdam
- Organ play in Mainz
- Firework above the Danube
- Turn of the year on the ship

Christmas Excursions

Arles

Christmas Time in Arles: Past and Present.

The notion that Arles would have served as a great source of inspiration for Vincent van Gogh is no surprise to anyone who has ever visited the city or marveled at the magnificence of its many ancient buildings. No trip to Arles is complete without a stop at its famous amphitheater, one of the most prominent symbols of the city's glorious Roman heritage. Admission to the arena is included in your VIVA ticket.

Avignon

Stop for the City, Stay for the Nativity Scenes

During Christmas, Avignon pulls out all the stops and emerges in full splendor. Making your way to the Christmas market, strolling past historic buildings and through ancient alleyways, you'll discover a wide range of local arts and crafts vendors and culinary specialties. But it's the Santons, the famous nativity scenes which tell the stories of life in Provence villages, that are truly the stars of the show. The crib in the Les Célestins Church, for example, is an essential stop. Beyond the incredible spectacle, this excursion serves as an inspirational encounter with ancient yuletide traditions.

Around 7,000 canal houses and warehouses, nearly 1,300 bridges, and exactly 165 urban canals, it's no surprise to anyone who has experienced Amsterdam's historic architecture, lively cafes, and dreamy waterways that UNESCO declared the Amsterdam Canal Belt a World Heritage Site in 2010. It also doesn't take much imagination to envision just how impressive the Venice of the North must look during the annual Amsterdam Light Festival, where 20 international artists illuminate the canals with their works of light art.
